Title

This ● and this ● and that

Experience

National Aeronautics and Space Administration   Cape Canaveral, Florida

Software Engineering Intern   Jun. 2019 - Aug. 2019

- Worked on class A, safety-critical, human rated spaceflight ground control software by participating in the full software development lifecycle and using agile processes

- Created, benchmarked, and optimized verification/validation software for launch control tests

- Independently prototyped original display profile saving system for launch control engineers